Occasionally, history is revealed by chance. In early 1983, I happened upon the Anderson family of Glen Echo, Maryland, walking along one of our nature trails. Mrs. Carlotta Anderson was searching for the former site of her grandfather's summer home, called "Bubbling Waters." Her grandfather was Jo Labadie (1850-1933).

Several stone foundations along Aspen Trail were, at the time, shrouded in mystery. Mrs. Anderson, upon viewing the location, believed it to be the object of her search. A subsequent visit to the Livingston County Courthouse to examine land records verified her supposition. With this information the site acquired a new significance.

Jo Labadie summered at "Bubbling Waters" from 1912 until 1933. Charles Joseph Antoine Labadie — known as "Jo" — was a prominent Detroit labor and maternal movement activist. Labeled the "gentle anarchist" because of his opposition to violence, he was an influential and prodigious writer. A huge collection of his work is in the possession of the University of Michigan.

In 1985, the Huron-Clinton Metroparks obtained the land from the family. What remains? Today, can be found two separate budging foundations and a living legacy of domestic flowers that continue to flourish. The site, largely overgrown, has been partially opened up by selective cutting of brush.

There remains much to be learned. Can anyone augment our limited knowledge of Jo's residence at Kensington? Perhaps someone visited there or knew the family. In addition, we would also like to learn more of Jo's brothers — Francis, Hubert and Oliver — who were involved in the production of silent movies in the local area. What do you know of them?

Mrs. Anderson is currently researching a book on Jo Labadie and his work. She needs assistance from us. Please contact me if you have anything to contribute or to share. (Bob Holzinger, Kensington Nature Center, (313) 556-1838)

GENERAL MEETING, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 9, 7:30
At the Old Town Hall, 202 W. Main Street.

Jerry Roe, member of the Michigan Historical Commission, will be the guest speaker. His enthusiastic concern for the preservation and restoration of events and items of historic value to Michigan have taken him to many locations in Michigan, several other states and across the ocean. Jerry's infectious interest will encourage and guide those who have a similar interest.

Jerry's expertise and experience is invaluable. He is anxious to share these with us. The Society can make good use of his visionary nature in determining our goals, setting our priorities and determining how to accomplish them. Fund raising is a particularly successful activity of Jerry's. He is no stranger to Brighton. He attended the historic marker dedication of the Old Town Hall and the St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

As usual the public is invited.

Next General Meeting, open to the public, is Tuesday, November 13, 7:00 p.m. This will be the Annual Meeting beginning with a potluck dinner. Business meeting, the election of officers and a program will begin at 8. The place has not been determined.

EDITORIAL

The support of members of the community is a most vitally needed response to any volunteer. This support must evidence itself with words, actions and funds. Yes, most volunteers will keep on struggling no matter what. But the development of a cohesive community is not a result of a few lone struggling.

And how long can one expect this struggle to continue before exhaustion sets in, discouragement takes over and a new undertaking is considered? A project which promises more return in the form of people attending general meetings, people offering to help with special events, people serving on the board, people taking photos, helping with nitty-gritty restoration, publicity, fundraising.

The active members of the Historical Society are determined the goals and purposes of the Society shall be accomplished. It would be good if more local residents joined in this determination. (Ed. M. Bair)

PROGRAM COMMITTEE OPEN TO SUGGESTIONS

To ensure programs of interest to the members and residents of the area, the Program Committee wants to know what you'd like. Contact Marlin Carney, 229-4554; she'll relay your message.
We need... someone to develop a cross stitch kit of a local site. We feel this could be a valuable fund raiser... a newsletter chairman... a publicity chairman... someone to do research on the history of the old Town Hall, the bell, and the Lyons School. And other local sites, mills, merchants, medical and legal professions, Mills Hospital, school... someone to open their home for a tour (perhaps Christmas), hobby or collection, etc., as a fund raiser.

SHAKERS AND MOVERS
John and Marie Lyon Korte are charter members of the Society. John served as Treasurer and Newsletter publisher until this past February; a labor of love and dedication. With their two children they came to the brighton area in 1971 from Lebanon.

John's ancestors came from Germany in the mid 1800s; he's attempting research as to the area from which they came.

When not working for ATT as a datacenter coordinator, the Brighton Band Boosters takes up much of his attention and energy. Playing saxophone in the Livingston County Concert Band brings enjoyment and helps satisfy his love of music.

Living in Hamburg Township, John is interested in learning more of the history of an early community called Campbell Town. Can anyone give him any history on this?

LYONS SCHOOL
We've painted the gym and several hardworking people to work on the project of getting the outside of the building protected from the weather this winter.

Still needed are more workers, funds to pay for the paint, heat and electricity bills. (Can you donate $50 to these expenses?)

Come in your work clothes. Pizza will be donated by Domino Pizza for lunch. Beverages provided.

Work dates: 9-1 p.m. every Saturday in October. Call Bert Love, 229-0402, Gary Cole, 226-6116, or Wally Jollitz, 229-9832 if you want to work another day.

CERAMIC TILES TO BE SOLD
Attempts to acquire a detailed, accurate picture of the Old Town Hall to be used on the tiles have caused some delay in getting the fund raiser completed. Be assured it's being researched and as soon as possible these items will be for sale. The interest already shown indicates these will sell quickly.

ALSO FOR SALE are Society cards and stationery with the Michigan History Magazine issue relating to the Court House restoration. These items are available at all General Meetings or call Ethel Gehren, 227-5575.

HISTORIC FALL TOUR REPORT
Recently fourteen from the Society joined a bus trip to Elora, Ontario, Canada. We stayed at the restored five-story historic grist mill, Elora Inn, located by the water fall and the Elora Gorge of the Grand River. Eight members of a local Scottish dance group cause tos to tap to the prime rib dinner.

Representatives of the Welland County historic and Research Society took time from their Sunday evening to speak with us and exchange ideas for our mutual interest in historic preservation and restoration.

Next morning after a sound sleep, soothed by the sound of the falls, a "Miller's Breakfast" was consumed. Pauline, a charming Mennonite lady joined the group for a tour of the surrounding Mennonite country. Upon arriving home we all hoped more could join us the next time.

WHAT YOU MISSED AT THE SEPTEMBER GENERAL MEETING
A one-room school, a church, a Greek revival home, a two-story Victorian home (with gingerbread, etc.) and a modest cottage have all been moved to an area called Mill Race Village in Northville. A blacksmith shop is being reconstructed and a gazebo, in which weddings often take place, are included. We learned that when caring people decide to restore and preserve a great deal can be accomplished.

During the short business meeting amended bylaws were approved. Copies are available by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Society or at the Brighton Area Chamber of Commerce, 131 Nye.

I.R.S. TAX EXEMPT STATUS
The Internal Revenue Service has recently recognized the Society as an income tax exempt organization. Funds or items donated can now be considered a deductible on one's income tax return.

THE LIVINGSTON COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY is presenting a Family History Seminar, Saturday, October 27, beginning at 9 a.m. Held at the Red Barn restaurant, 1140 Pinckney Rd., Howell, the charge, including lunch, is $15 for two or more persons, $25. with spouse.

Janet Rohrbacher, Joanne Harvey, Cliff Keller and Dan and Clyde Cherrylin are each presenting a program.

Reservations are to be sent to the LCOS, P.O. Box 927, Brighton, by October 17. For more information: Marj Wilcox, 229-8556 or Diane Weedlech, 229-2586.
