Three churches and four home owners have graciously consented to open their doors to the public during the first home tour sponsored by the Society. All the homes and the St. George Lutheran Church are in the Smith/McPherson Addition to Brighton. St. Paul's Episcopal Church and First Presbyterian Church are in the "Old" town. The residences of Rae-Lynne and Marty Lerner, Cathy and Mike Qualls, Rita and Larry Schilling, and Penny and Jim Szczesniak are the homes on the tour.

The day of the tour tickets will be available at any of the sites for $6. Children under 6 are not encouraged. Tickets purchased before the tour are $5., available at Ubera Drug Store, Brighton Chamber of Commerce, the Brighton Public Library and Somewhere in Time store.

A lunch will be available, noon-2PM at St. George Church, 803 W. Main.

Land in the southwest corner of Brighton Township was first taken up from the US Government by Maynard Molby in 1832. Between 1832 and 1835, Anthony Gale, Elijah Fitch, John & Elizabeth Cushing, Wm. Noble and others also filled claims to land in this area. Some of these folks stayed and developed the land; others bought only to speculate.

The area east of Ore Creek, along Fitch (Main St.) and the Grand River Trail saw the building of log structures such as homes, barns, stage stops, churches, a school, saw and grain mills, offices, stores, distilleries and a post office. By 1867, sufficient development had occurred for Brighton Village to be incorporated.

There was more to celebrate in Brighton July 4, 1871, than the 95th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. The long awaited railroad tracks had arrived. Those celebrating had good reason - every acre within 10 miles of the railroad almost doubled in value, farmers had a means to get their produce to market and since the economy was almost entirely dependent on agriculture, 'boom times' were anticipated.

With the advent of the RR through the west side of town, Hiram H. Smith, President of the Detroit, Lansing and Lake Michigan RR, and Edward G. and Wm. Jr., McPherson, Howell businessmen, purchased 3-10-71, all the land lying north of W. Main from Elizabeth Cushing and that south of W. Main from Elijah Fitch. Early in 1872, a well promoted sale of lots was held with a brass band playing, flags and banners flying. Several farmers in adjacent townships had reached a period in their lives when they had accumulated sufficient means to retire, and by 1875 at least ten houses were built. Lumber and livestock yards, elevators, Western House Hotel and several new stores were built on W. Main Street. It looks like Brighton is here to stay. GENERAL MEETING - TUESDAY, MAY 10
Mary Mathias, born in Brighton, will tell about her childhood in this area. She was a daughter of the Stewarts who owned the grain elevator at 400 W. Main. The latest enterprise in this building is the Periwinkle Restaurant. Mary has a fine sense of humor. Those attending will have a good time.

A pot luck, beginning at 6:30 and a short business meeting will be followed by Mary's presentation. She will try to answer questions relative to her time in Brighton.

We'll meet at the Lindboro Elementary School, 1010 State Street. The room we'll use is at the far west end of the building. The public is invited.
