

Thank You For Your Support!

Do you realize how key your membership is for the preservation of Brighton history? Restoration of Old Village Cemetery, operation and preservation of the 1885 Lyon Schoolhouse, continued FREE Brighton history exhibits in the 1879 CoBACH Center, and the Brighton Victorian Silhouettes found around the Millpond are available through the generosity of individuals including businesses and organizations. Please support the following groups as they help to provide community culture and preservation of cherished memories through their BAHS membership.
